"New Challenges from the Online Environment in Insurance"

Subtopics: Cybersecurity, transparency and data

Webinar: 15 October 2020 session 16-18hrs Rome time

The current pandemic situation has led to a development of online activity which has highlighted, also in the insurance distribution, problems of data flow, in the implementation of the disclosure obligations, fairness and transparency, and possible cybersecurity risks.

The AIDA Motor Insurance Working Party and AIDA General Principles of Insurance Law Working Party are associating with the Universities of Florence, the Nova School of Law in Lisbon and the University of Exeter, UK to deliver a webinar to address these issues.

Chairs: Margarida Lima Rego (AIDA, Nova Lisbon), Sara Landini (AIDA, Unifi), Kyriaki Noussia (AIDA, Uni Exeter)

Speakers:

- Cybersecurity (definition and data related issues – as a problem of insurance company, cybersecurity coverage as a war – terrorist risk and how to best address it in the new era that is being formulated) - Fabio Maniori (Uni Trieste)
- Data Protection - Birgit Kuschke (AIDA, Uni Pretoria)
- Transparency - Samim Unan (AIDA Presidential Council)
