

Professional Biography

Marco SASSO

Marco Sasso is a multilingual senior law professional specialized in legal and tax matters of insurance and banking. Holding a master degree in Law (LLM), he initially started in international law firms in Italy and worked for some period of time at EU Court of Justice in Luxembourg as lawyer translator. He then moved to financial field and obtained extensive experience in leading life insurance companies. Marco holds a postgraduate Master in Lobbying and EU Affairs and another Executive Master in International finance, audit & control. With specialization in all areas of Insurance law, national and international tax law, banking law he is also fascinated by wealth management aspects. Marco covers the role as Senior Legal and Tax advisor at SoGeLife SA and managing a small team. He is a member of AILO and AJBL Associations. Finally, Marco is Board member of AIDA Luxembourg and Chair of Italian Technical Working Group of ACA.